WACADA Professional Development Grants

Advisors are responsible to their professional role as advisors and to themselves personally. The Wisconsin Academic Advising Association is committed to assisting members in participating in professional development opportunities through classes, workshops, seminars, research and conferences.

Award:

Two awards will be disbursed at up to a maximum of $250.00 each for professional development purposes. Award winners will be announced and funds disbursed at the WACADA Fall Conference.

Criteria:

- Recipient must be a member of WACADA
- Recipient must use Professional Development Grant for activities that surround Academic Advising issues
- Recipient must share their professional development experience with colleagues in their individual institution, or at a seminar, workshop, or conference (such as WACADA or NACADA)

Deadline: July 1, 2006

Interested individuals must submit a brief proposal with a statement about your current position and institution, why you feel you should receive a professional development grant, and how you will share your experiences on the accompanying application form. Please include your name, work address, city, state, zip code, phone number, email, position title, and school/institution.
